

Character Breakdown

If/Then takes each of these characters on different journeys through a “Liz” storyline and a “Beth” storyline. Therefore each of the character descriptions is kept fairly simple. For more information on who each character is in each storyline we recommend getting as familiar with the show as possible.

Liz/Beth	Elizabeth is our protagonist; An Urban Planner, newly returned to NYC. She is nearing 40 and at a crossroads in life and wonders how a simple choice affects one's life.
Josh	A Doctor and army reservist.
Kate	Elizabeth's neighbor. A kindergarten teacher.
Lucas	Elizabeth's college friend, a community activist.
Ann	Kate's Girlfriend.
Stephen	Elizabeth's grad school peer and a city planner.
David	A Pediatric Surgeon.
Elena	A young city planner.
	ENSEMBLE ROLES: All of these role feature throughout the show as ensemble members in addition to featured work in their named roles. Our ensemble will be kept small and dynamic with each member serving a vital function.
Flight Attendant	A flight attendant of a plane in a pivotal moment in act 2.
Deputy Mayor/ Biologist
Trader/ Architect
Paulette/ Intern	Paulette is a fan of Luca's book. The Intern asks Beth for career advice.
Cathy	David's wife.
Guidance Counselor/ Soldier	Guidance Counselor. The Soldier informs Liz of some life changing news
Street Musician	A musician in Central park as the story begins, guitar skills a plus.
Bartender	Works in a Manhattan bar